In all churches of the Roman Catholic diocese of Burlington offerings are to be received for the same purpose.

Alexander Ross of Franklin street and George Rock of East Barre have returned home from a trip through southern Vermont, in the course of which they visited several Red Men tribes as representatives of the state organization. Among the towns where Messrs. Ross and Rock were entertained by local tribes were Brattleboro, Bellows Falls, Chester, Springfield and Windsor.

Circular photographs of the National Retail Monument Dealers' association convention, which was held in Denver, Col., last summer, are exhibited at B. W. Hooker & Co.'s furniture store. Scenes at Denver, Marble and Hell Gate, Col., are depicted. The pictures are the property of Mrs. Mary Barclay of Park street, who with her daughter, Miss Grace Barclay, was among the several Barre people who attended the convention and participated in the sight-seeing trips incident to the gathering of monument retailers.

The ladies' aid auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold a joint fair Dec. 8 and 9 in the vestry of the church. You cannot afford to wear your old hats when you can buy one so cheap at Mrs. Lavolette's during Thanksgiving week.—adv.

Superintendent of Cemeteries Alex. Huxton will be in his office at city hall Saturday, Nov. 20, and 27, from 7 to 8 o'clock for collections on care of lots.

The members and guests of the Barre Woman's club were very much entertained yesterday afternoon by a demonstration lecture by Mrs. Julian Demost of East Corinth. The demonstration was on cake, and several kinds were made and many ways of decoration were shown. A short talk on the agricultural extension work of the state was also very interesting.

Patrick Kane, who was arrested yesterday, pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court last evening. It being a subsequent offense, Kane was asked to disclose, a request which he is said to have regarded rather lightly. The magistrate sentenced him to serve 30 days in the county jail and to pay a $15 fine with costs of $5.30. Kane's failure to settle the fine and costs automatically lengthened his sentence to 90 days. He was taken to jail this morning.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: T. J. Quilliam, Chester Wood, A. H. Jones and chauffeur, of Troy, N. Y., who were motor arrivals at Hotel Barre; S. Savard of Lakeport, N. H.; Chauncy M. Austin of St. Albans; C. U. Bishop of Burlington; E. W. Post of Essex Junction; C. E. Grossarth of Burlington; W. E. Silver of Des Moines, Ia.; Miss D. S. Tuttle, Miss M. H. Beckett and T. F. Stikney of Williamstown, C. G. Maynard of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Savois of Wilmington, P. E. McGitterick of Burlington, Miss Effie Shea of Middlebury, Arthur Buchanan of Hoosick, N. Y., Miss Frances Sampson of Derby.

The Urban Stock Co. opened a week's engagement at the opera house before a large audience last evening, using for their initial performance the four-act drama by Bayard Veiller of international fame, "Within the Law." The high standard set by this company in past years suffered not last evening, for their presentation was complete in all its details, each and every one giving special relief to his lines, bringing out the author's idea of the possible temptations offered to poorly paid factory help and the unenviable life led by crooks in the metropolitan districts. Miss Marion Jounquet assumed the role of Mary Turner, around whom the story circles, for she it is that the police do their best to connect with lawless acts. Miss Jounquet was seen at her best in the scene of the police headquarters. On several occasions during the performance bursts of applause indicated that the performance was being well received. The company carries a carload of scenery and some shown last evening compares favorably with some of the more expensive productions seen here. Four first-class acts of vaudeville between the acts are one of the many features of the company. Mention might be made of Charles Hammond, the hoop roller, who uses six strings and whose manipulation of the hoops is a marvel. To-night the company will present, "The Divorce Question."
